KEEP IT SIMPLE

The camper who brings too many belongings needlessly complicates life and risks imposing on cabin mates' personal space and patience.

Luggage must fit into two small duffels or one extra large duffel and one day pack of a size appropriate to wear to school.

Wazi is not a "uniform" camp, but we expect clothing to be modest and appropriate to a simple, active outdoor life. Leave the trendy revealing clothes at home.

LEAVE THESE AT HOME

- . knives or weapons of any sort
- . cell phones*, walkie talkies, televisions
- . CDs with parental advisories
- . locks or lockable containers
- . money (there's nowhere to use it)
- . high heels and other unstable shoes unsuitable for Wazi's uneven terrain
- . clothing with derogatory or inappropriate language or pictures on it
- . expensive watches, jewelry, etc.
- . irreplaceable items of sentimental value
- . anything prohibited by Maine State Law

 unless needed for traveling, in this case the cell phone will be placed in a safe located on camp*
